Elia Mendoza, District XV Director visits 301 Youth

Francisco Cortez was elected to 301 Youth President on Monday, January 7, 2008 as he is being congratulated by Mr. Joshua Villela, District XV Director for Youth. “After a full year of many meetings, Community Service projects and fundraisers, I am elated to be elected President of this long-standing youth council,” states Francisco. Below, Francisco conducts the meeting after elections. Ruben Nieto was elected to Vice-President.

Bobby Herrera (above), a first year youth member, speaks to the council about his candidacy for Treasurer; whereas Aaron Mann (below) another 1st timer member vies for the same position. Although incumbent Alex Cortez won the election, both were commended for their courage to speak. “It took a lot of heart for these young members to run against a veteran,” stated Javier Montanez, advisor.
