

LULAC Youth No. 301 News

Prospective 301 members are interviewed

301 Youth News - San Antonio, Texas

May 3, 2009

Vol. 18, Issue 7

On August 3, 2008, (l-r) Natalie Anguiano, Victoria & Alberto Jacinto are interviewed to become members of the youth council by Aaron Mann, youth president during a meeting. "Why do you want to join is a normal question" states Javier Montanez, Youth Advisor. The interviews are conducted to "break the ice" between new & old members and it usually tell us a bit about who they are and we find out more who we are as members. The "interviews" have been utilized for the past 15 years as a criterion to enter the youth council. All interviewed are now members including "Natalie" who is the daughter to founding member, Andrew Anguiano, who was 301's first National Youth President.

Andrew Anguiano was the guest speaker for the council and spoke about his National Presidency experience. He also spoke about his LULAC skills that he applies in his everyday business as a local advertiser; below, Andrew with his son "Andresito" as he is known.
