GUADALUPE STREET COFFEE

No. 301 News District XV San Antonio, Texas December 16, 2007 Vol. 16, Issue 14

Since July, the council has met 16 times in the "CUP" room of the GSC. "The staff of the GSC & BCFS have been very supportive of our council," states Javier Montanez, 301 Advisor. Below, students sit at the computer stations.

(L-R) Ruben Nieto, Vice-President, Jennifer Blanco, Sgt.at-Arms & Joshua Villela, District XV Director for Youth (former 301). Guadalupe Street Coffee (GSC) is a community development project operated by Baptist Child & Family Services community ministries program which opened in 2006 thanks to your support. Located at 1320 Guadalupe Street, it provides educational support opportunities for local students aimed at increasing school retention & enhancing youths' likelihood of graduation. It also serves as a positive gathering place for community members of all ages, as well as a conference room.
